BAJAU

Komodo to Alor, across the Flores Sea aboard Bajau

Labuan Bajo to Alor | Komodo and the Flores Sea

The Flores Sea is a world of colourful coral reefs and thriving marine ecosystems in the Coral Triangle, with snorkelling over vibrant coral gardens.

It starts in Komodo National Park, with dramatic landscapes, the famous Pink Beach and the Komodo dragons, the world's largest lizards.

Along the coast, master weavers create intricate ikat in multicultural villages.

In Riung National Park, large fruit bats called kalong, up to 1 metre long, can be seen up close from a kayak.

One night is spent beside an island with an active volcano and hot springs on the beach.
