BLUE MANTA

Misool, Fak Fak and Triton Bay

Sorong to Kaimana | Misool, Fak Fak and Triton Bay

Triton Bay feels like entering a time capsule from the past, remote, unspoiled and made all the more alluring by the lack of crowds.

Its black coral forests are awesome in scale, and the soft coral coverage matches Misool, with huge schools of untroubled trevallies and jacks, squadrons of bumphead parrotfish and ever-present turtles.

There are plenty of macro superstars, and night dives with walking sharks.

First comes southern Raja Ampat, among the most bio-diverse waters on earth, where Misool's reefs are spectacularly beautiful.

Fak Fak adds the Kiti-Kiti waterfall to swim beneath, and there is a chance to snorkel with whale sharks off a small fishing village.
