Ultimate Raja Ampat

Sorong to Sorong | Misool, Piaynemo, Kawe, Yanggefo and the Dampier Strait

The Daram Islands in Misool are part of a 300,000-acre marine conservation area, with stunning sea fan forests, gorgonians and soft corals that are home to pygmy seahorses.

Further on, a vast area of hard and soft coral surrounds Warakaraket, and reef after reef is full of abundant fish.

In central Raja Ampat, reef sharks, schools of tuna, jacks and barracuda patrol the strong currents of Yanggefo.

The Dampier Strait brings beautiful and varied coral reefs with schools of sweetlips, barracuda and fusiliers.

A hike up to the Piaynemo viewpoint rewards you with a spectacular view of the surrounding islands.
