AMIRA

Forgotten Islands

Saumlaki to Maumere | Forgotten Islands, Banda Sea and Alor

The Forgotten Islands are a remote chain of islands spanning more than 1,000 km, with some of the best and still largely unexplored dive sites in Indonesian waters.

The Banda Sea sites have deep blue clear water, endless reefs of soft and hard corals and schooling fish in abundance.

Massive sponges are what make these reefs special, and with luck you may see them spawning.

The reef tops, with plenty of leather corals and healthy hard coral gardens, are some of the best.

The trip finishes at Alor, with muck diving and walls.

Your itinerary

DAY 1

Boarding

No dives

The Amira crew pick you up from the airport or hotel.
After a welcome drink you check in to your cabin, then have breakfast or lunch, depending on the time you arrive.
Once everyone is on board, the cruise director gives a detailed boat and safety briefing, and in the afternoon a general diving briefing explains how the diving is organised.
Usually there are no dives on the first day.

DAY 2-7

Forgotten Islands

3 to 4 dives a day

The trip starts in the very far east of Indonesia, in the remote Forgotten Islands, which can only be reached by liveaboard.
The Banda Sea sites have deep blue clear water, endless reefs with soft and hard corals and schooling fish in abundance.
The massive sponges are what make these reefs special, and if you are lucky you may see them spawning.
The reef tops, with plenty of leather corals and healthy hard coral gardens, are some of the best.

DAY 8-9

Crossing the Banda Sea

2 to 3 dives

A journey of roughly 800 nautical miles takes you through the Banda Sea.
This is a crossing tour, so there are very few night dives and hardly any land excursions.

DAY 10

Alor

3 to 4 dives

Alor offers muck diving and walls.
There may be one cold day here, with water down to 20 C.

DAY 11

Last diving day

Up to 2 dives

The last diving day has a maximum of 2 dives, then the boat cruises to the disembarkation harbour.
Keep to the no-flying rule, pack your gear and settle your bill.

DAY 12

Check out

Check out and transfer to the airport or your hotel, accompanied by the crew.

GOOD TO KNOW

On land and on the way

Forgotten Islands

A chain of more than 1,000 km from Timor to West Papua.

Sponges

Massive sponges in big numbers, and healthy reef tops.

Alor

Muck diving and walls.

Banda Sea

About 800 nautical miles of remote diving.

Check in

The Amira crew pick you up from the airport or hotel, welcome you with a drink and show you to your cabin. Check in is possible early in the morning after the first flights arrive, and the latest check in is 11:30 am. If no flight arrives before noon, fly to the port the day before and stay in a hotel.

Check out

The boat arrives in the disembarkation port late the evening before, so check out is possible from midnight until 10:30 am at the latest. The crew take you to the airport or your hotel. If your flight is in the afternoon, they can drop you at a hotel and collect you in time for check in at the airport.

Last dive

The last dive is on the second to last day, with a maximum of 2 dives. Divers should wait at least 24 hours after their last dive before flying, so please keep to the no-flying rule when you book your flight home.
