AMIRA

Komodo, Labuan Bajo to Bima

Labuan Bajo to Bima | Komodo National Park, Rinca and Sangeang

Komodo is one of the all-time favourites, in the most famous national park in Indonesia, a World Heritage Site and one of the New 7 Wonders of the World.

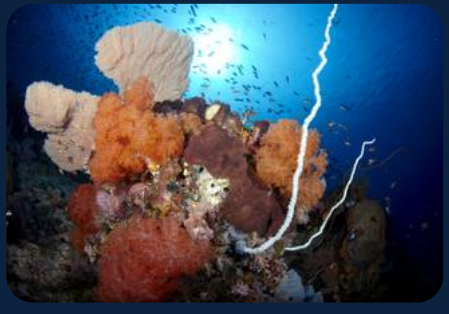

Sangeang is an active volcanic island where bubbles come out of the reef and the sand, an unusual finish to a Komodo trip.

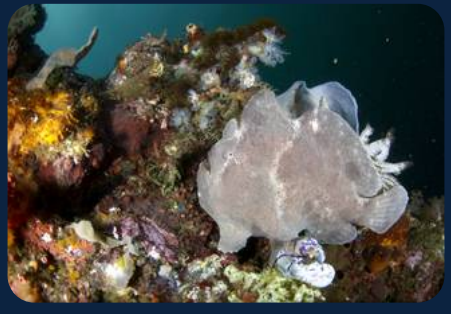

In the park the current-rich water gives spectacular dives, with large numbers of fish, sharks and mantas.

The less crowded south of Rinca has diving that is a treat even for the most sophisticated divers.

On land, the Komodo dragons can be seen in the wild with the park rangers, and viewpoints have landscapes that look like something out of a Jurassic Park movie.

Your itinerary

DAY 1

Boarding

No dives

The Amira crew pick you up from the airport or hotel.
After a welcome drink you check in to your cabin, then have breakfast or lunch, depending on the time you arrive.
Once everyone is on board, the cruise director gives a detailed boat and safety briefing, and in the afternoon a general diving briefing explains how the diving is organised.
Usually there are no dives on the first day.

DAY 2-5

Northern and central Komodo

3 to 4 dives a day

You visit all the top sites of the park, including Castle Rock, Batubolong and Manta Alley, with current-rich dives, large amounts of fish, sharks and mantas.

DAY 6-8

Southern Rinca

3 to 4 dives a day

Unless the weather does not allow it, Amira always goes down south, to the less crowded part of Rinca with Horseshoe Bay, where Cannibal Rock and Larry's Yellow Wall of Texas are a treat even for the most sophisticated divers.
The dragons can be seen in the wild, on a land visit with the park rangers.

DAY 9-10

Sangeang volcano

3 to 4 dives a day

On the way to or from Bima you can dive around the active volcanic island of Sangeang, where bubbles come out of the reef and the sand.

DAY 11

Last diving day

Up to 2 dives

The last diving day has a maximum of 2 dives, then the boat cruises to the disembarkation harbour.
Keep to the no-flying rule, pack your gear and settle your bill.

DAY 12

Check in

The Amira crew pick you up from the airport or hotel, welcome you with a drink and show you to your cabin. The boat arrives in the disembarkation port late the evening before, so check out is possible from midnight until 10:30 am at the latest. The crew take you to the airport or your hotel. If your flight is in the afternoon, they can drop you at a hotel and collect you in time for check in at the airport.
