CARPE DIEM PHINISI

Central Raja Ampat

Waisai to Waisai | Dampier Strait, Piaynemo and Yangefo

Colourful soft and hard corals cover a long ridge in Raja Ampat, with sea fans and large bommies sheltering glassfish and wobbegong sharks.

Morning dives aim for reef and oceanic manta rays, and the night dives turn to the small things.

Hunting sharks and abundant schools of fish patrol the reefs around Piaynemo, where a hike to the viewpoint and a lagoon wait above water.

A change of scenery comes with mangroves, a coral-rich reef and surrounding forest alive with birds.

Fish-focused dives on the east side of Kri close the trip.
