MERMAID II

Bali and Komodo with Whale Sharks of Saleh Bay

Bali to Bali | Moyo, Saleh Bay and Komodo

Whale sharks in Saleh Bay come first, with an early morning in the water beside them for about three hours.

Then it is on to Komodo, where mantas gather on their cleaning stations and the north is a fish day, with giant trevally, jacks, eagle rays, hundreds of unicornfish and a chance for whitetip and grey reef sharks.

Moyo Island has massive elephant ear and barrel sponges, and small whitetip sharks snoozing under massive table corals.

Night dives bring frogfish, bobtail squid and devil scorpionfish, after a million bats fly out at sunset.

On land, you walk with the Komodo dragons.
