TIARE

Triton Bay and Banda Neira

Kaimana to Ambon | Triton Bay, Koon and the Banda Islands

Whale shark encounters in Triton Bay open a journey that runs on through the Spice Islands.

Koon lies over a trench deeper than 3,000 metres, with large schools of black snapper, batfish and barracuda, and sharks in the deep.

The Banda Islands bring big ocean pelagics, hard coral beneath the Gunung Api volcano, deep walls where hammerheads have been known to visit, and a sunset dive for mandarin fish.

At Nusa Laut, eagle rays, a huge school of jacks, hammerheads and even a dugong have been seen.

The finale is muck diving in Ambon Bay, with rhinopias, frogfish, ghost pipefish, ribbon eels and the mimic octopus.
